

K-theory and topological periodic homology

Thomas Nikolaus^{1,*}

¹*Department of Mathematics, University of Münster, Germany*

*Email: nikolaus@uni-muenster.de

We will review recent developments in the area of algebraic K-theory and trace methods. The idea is to compare K-theory to topological cyclic homology. In particular we shall explain how topological cyclic homology is related to arithmetic cohomology theories (like crystalline and prismatic cohomology) and how these relations lead to new insights.